Chef Lambie's Recipe

PLAZA FRUIT CAKE

2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon ground cloves
1 teaspoon ground mace
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
3/4 cup butter, softened (or margarine)
3/4 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
2 eggs
1 (16 ounce) can apricot halves, drained and chopped
1/4 cup scotch whiskey, plus more
Scotch whiskey, to age and soak
2 cups seedless raisins
8 ounces mixed candied fruit, chopped
1 1/2 cups pecans, chopped
8 ounces candied red cherries, halved
4 ounces candied green cherries, halved
Cheesecloth
3 tablespoon of apricot jam
1 lb 8 oz marzipan

ROYAL ICING

2 large egg whites
5 cups of icing sugar
3 tsp of lemon juice
1 1/2 teaspoon glycerin

Chef Lambie's Recipe

PREPARATION

1. Roll the marzipan up on the rolling pin, then lay it on the cake and smooth the top and sides. Trim off any excess marzipan and patch any places where the marzipan didn't reach.
You'll probably have leftover marzipan, so just save that for another use.
2. Loosely cover it with parchment paper and set it in a cool, dry place for 4-5 days, until the marzipan has hardened.
3. Grease a 9x5x3-inch loaf pan.
4. Mix flour, baking powder, cinnamon, mace and cloves.
5. Cream butter with brown sugar until fluffy/light in a large bowl. Beat in eggs one at a time. Stir in apricots and whiskey. Stir in flour mixture until blended, then raisins, mixed fruit, pecans and cherries.
6. Spoon into prepared pan. Spread top evenly.
7. Bake at 300 degrees for 2 hours or till wooden pick comes out clean. Cool completely in pan on wire rack. Loosen cooled cake around the edges with a knife; turn out onto rack.
8. Wrap in cheesecloth, pour some scotch Whiskey over it every few days, and let age for two to four weeks. Overwrap the cheesecloth with foil. Keep in the refrigerator
9. Take the aged cake out of its tin and remove the lining paper. Place it flat side up on a large serving plate
10. Take the aged cake out of its tin and remove the lining paper. Place it flat side up on a large serving plate
11. Warm the apricot jam in a small saucepan with a splash of water, stirring frequently until the jam has melted. Push the jam through a sieve with a spoon, reserving the sieved jam.
12. Brush the jam all over the flat top and sides.
13. On a surface lightly dusted with icing sugar, roll out the marzipan in a circle a few inches larger than the cake.

ROYAL ICING (20M)

1. Place the egg whites in a clean, grease-free bowl and beat on low speed with a hand-held electric mixer until they are foamy and frothy.
2. Add in the sugar by large spoonfuls while whisking on low speed. If the mixer's motor is struggling, increase the speed a little.
3. Once all the sugar is incorporated, whisk in the lemon juice and glycerine and whisk on medium speed until the icing stands up in stiff peaks when the whisk is lifted.
To test it further, place a generous blob of it on a flat surface. If it holds its shape, it's done.
4. Use the icing immediately or cover with plastic wrap and keep in a cool place until needed.

DECORATING (25 min + 2 days drying time)

14. Spoon all of the icing onto the top of the cake and spread it evenly over the top and sides, giving it a snowy look with a small spatula or palette knife. Get a smooth finish with a clean ruler or palette knife.
15. Leave it uncovered in a cool, dry place for 2 days for the icing to set.
16. Wrap a festive ribbon around the cake. Make a small bowl out of the same ribbon and pin it on.

Palm Court Classics

MIDNIGHT MANHATTAN 32

This non-traditional Manhattan breaks away from the original classic by combining the bitter smokiness of Amaro Sfumato liqueur paired with the sweetness of Hudson Baby bourbon and then finished with Fee Brothers orange bitters.

WHITE COSMO 28

First introduced in the 1980s by the “Martini Queen of South Beach”, Cheryl Cook, the Cosmo has become an icon all its own. The Palm Court has given this fashionable drink a bit of a makeover. Grey Goose L’Orange and Cointreau are impressed with fresh lime and white cranberry juice to give a new twist to this 80’s classic.

SIDECAR 28

There are many stories as to where this cocktail got its name, one of the most popular dates back to an American Army captain during World War I who regularly rode in the sidecar of a motorcycle to Harry’s New York Bar in Paris where the drink was created. Here at the Plaza Hennessy VSOP cognac, Cointreau and fresh lemon juice are served in a martini glass with a sugar crusted rim to make this classic cocktail.

FIESTA NARANJA 28

Immigrate to a warmer climate! Let this festive blend of Solerno Blood Orange liqueur and Tres Generaciones Plata tequila take you back to old Mexico during the dead of winter. Shaken together with freshly squeezed lime and blood orange juice with just a taste of organic agave nectar added to deliver a respite from old man winter’s grasp, if even for just a few sips.

BIG APPLE 29

A New York City original, Green Hook gin, has been infused with the crisp taste of local green apples and then accentuated with Calvados apple brandy. To add touch of sweetness, we use upstate New York honey and balance it out with fresh lemon and then complete it with a honeycomb on a stick,

CHERRYWOOD 28

Lusciously sweet and nutty this cocktail features Dewar’s White Label and Luxardo Maraschino liqueur interwoven with fresh citrus juice and a touch of Frangelico then laced with Fee Brothers cherry bitters.

SUGAR MAPLE 28

Enjoy the freshly harvested flavor of organic Vermont maple syrup and freshly squeezed citrus juices combined with Laird’s apple jack brandy and brut champagne to warm up the coldest winter days
